We begin by acknowledging the traditional territory on which we stand. For many thousands of years, the Sinixt and other peoples have sought to walk gently on this land. They offered assistance to the first European travelers to this territory, and shared their knowledge for survival in what was, at times, a harsh climate.

We seek a new relationship with the Original Peoples of this land, one based in honour and deep respect.

God,

you weep with those who are oppressed,

and with those who are without shelter or security.
Grant that your faithful love may reach out through us,
so that your healing mercy may rise like the dawn.
We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son. Amen.
