Grief is a universal experience, and it has been amplified by the isolation of the COVID pandemic over the past two years. We all grieve the loss of people important to us, loss of pets, and other important things in our lives.

Have you ever thought about becoming a grief support volunteer? Would you like to learn more about the grief experience and how to help people navigate their loss and then find meaning in it?

Join us for 3 Saturdays, November 5, 12, and 19 to take Grief Support Training offered by Trail Hospice Society. Register by calling the Hospice Office 250-364-6204. Cost: $30 which includes lunches and books.
